

I am strongly against any regulations that preempt the current state laws to regulate telephone solicitation. I reside in Indiana. The current regulations are effective and should not be "watered down" by weaker and less effective Federal standards.